

Kosi Ayanna, Cosmic Breath (2021-2022) - During a time in which the world was barely beginning to see what may possibly be the end of a global pandemic, this work in abstraction can be interpreted as a representation of the period of rebirth the artist was going through at the time.

The Cosmic Breath of Brahma, of which this piece gets its name, derives from Hinduism. The Out-breathing and In-breathing of Brahma, represents the creation and destruction of worlds; bringing all meaning back to the source and exhaling to begin anew. With this piece, Ayanna translates mental awakensness to visual form. Cosmic Breath attempts to capture the moment where death turns to life.
